THAILAND’S ECONOMY CONTINUES TO EXPAND

Thailand’s economy expanded by 2.8% in Q1 2026, accelerating from the 2.5% posted in Q4 2025, driven by strong investment, export performance, and domestic spending. However, the Q1 2026 growth figure does not yet reflect the impact of the energy crisis from March onwards. Thailand may see rising inflation and cost of living issues in the coming quarters. The government now forecasts GDP growth for the full-year 2026 in the 1.5% to 2.5% range (midpoint 2%). The inflation rate in Q1 2026 was at -0.54% y-o-y, down from -0.52% y-o-y in Q4 2025. The unemployment rate rose to 0.94% in Q1 from 0.7% in Q4. The Bank of Thailand maintained the key interest rate at 1% in April 2026, the lowest level in more than three years.

NEW PROJECT LAUNCHES SLOW SIGNIFICANTLY.

New condominium project launches in Q2 2026 totaled 2,332 units, marking a fall of around 67% compared to the prior quarter. However, total new units launched in the first half of 2026 stood at 9,501 units, up 42% compared to the 1H 2025 period. By location, around 90% of the projects launched in Q2 2026 were situated along the Sukhumvit BTS line outside the Central Business District (CBD), with the balance located in Bangkok’s outer areas. The total number of new condominium launches for the full-year 2026 is projected to reach approximately 17,000 units. This figure could be higher if the overall market situation improves during the second half of the year.

SIGNIFICANT GAP IN AVERAGE SELLING PRICES AT NEW LAUNCHES

The average selling price of newly launched condominium units in Q2 2026 was THB150,417 per sq m, representing a jump of 78.4% from the prior quarter. This spike is due to the fact that around 90% of the new projects launched in Q2 were located along Sukhumvit Road, specifically between Sukhumvit Soi 34 and Sukhumvit Soi 63. This particular district commands a high average selling price of approximately THB183,875 per sq m, and driven by two projects that were launched at prices exceeding THB220,000 per sq m. Notably, from 2024 onwards, the average selling price of newly launched condominium projects in each quarter has shown greater fluctuation compared to the period before 2024.
