AERIAL MAP

Bathurst, New Brunswick, is located on the northeastern coast of the province, along the shores of Chaleur Bay, part of the Gulf of St. Lawrence. Its strategic location provides access to maritime routes and proximity to natural resources, including forests and mineral-rich areas. This coastal city is well-connected by road and rail, making it a potential hub for industries like fishing, forestry, and mining, while also offering opportunities for tourism development thanks to its scenic coastal views and outdoor recreational activities.
