// PROPERTY HIGHLIGHTS

STRATEGICALLY LOCATED

1250 Markham Road is positioned as a developing community hub that balances residential needs with commercial opportunities while being integrated into a natural landscape that benefits from excellent accessibility and a growing, diverse population base.

With signalized access onto Markham Road, the property provides convenient movement across major transportation routes and facilitates easy connections to other parts of the Greater Toronto Area, in addition the property boosts immediate access to public transit with TTC bus stop (102 Markham Road) adjacent to the site and additional transit routes providing connections to TTC subway and GO Transit allowing for a much larger catchment area.

1250 Markham Road is strategically located on the west side of Markham Road, north of Ellesmere Road and located less than 1km south of Highway 401.

ESTABLISHED COMMUNITY AREA

1250 Markham Road is in a large established residential area with a local population of 305,000 within five kilometers. The surrounding area offers a range of amenities that enhance the property's appeal and contribute to the overall quality of life by providing convenience, promoting health and wellness, and fostering a sense of community for residents. Nearby amenities include parks and green space, schools, hospitals, community centres, numerous retail shops, supermarkets, and restaurants.

ESTABLISHED COMMUNITY AREA

The existing facility features a number of program spaces on site including a 1,500 seat auditorium, gymnasium with full size basketball court, childcare space, a full kitchen, numerous meeting and board rooms as well as private offices. The current zoning allows for education and training, place of worship and recreational uses. The Property is ideally suited for continued use as a community/ cultural centre.
