ABOUT BRANDON, MB

Brandon, Manitoba offers an exceptional industrial development opportunity, particularly in its strategic southeast location. This thriving city of 54,268 residents serves as a crucial economic hub in southwestern Canada, with a trading area encompassing about 190,000 people

STRATEGIC LOCATION:

- Situated on the Trans-Canada Highway
- Served by two transcontinental railroads
- Regional airport with daily flights to Calgary

ROBUST INDUSTRIAL SECTOR:

- Home to Manitoba's largest chemical manufacturing cluster
- Houses the province's largest pork processing plant and dairy processor
- Key industries: agri-food processing, metal fabrication, chemical production, and transportation

RECENT INVESTMENTS AND GROWTH:

- Attracted approximately $200 million in investments across heavy-industry and food-processing sectors in 2023
- Ongoing developments and site selections planned for 2024

ECONOMIC INDICATORS:

- The city's economy generates $2.9 billion in household and business incomes
- Average income of $54,276 per resident

WORKFORCE AND EDUCATION:

- Skilled workforce supported by Brandon University and Assiniboine Community College
