THE CITY OF FORT COLLINS

Located in northern Colorado, Fort Collins is home to Colorado State University and an outstanding public school system. Nestled at the base of the Rocky Mountains, Fort Collins offers exciting recreational opportunities, unique cultural offerings, and is a regional center for employment and shopping.

Throughout the year, live music and entertainment, as well as great local dining, can be found throughout the historic downtown area. Fort Collins offers the convenience of a small town with all the amenities of a larger city. If you are seeking the Colorado lifestyle and a community in which you can reinvent and reinvigorate yourself then Fort Collins is your city.

The City maintains more than 966 acres of parks, 37,607 acres of natural areas, 45 miles of off-street hike/bike trails, three golf courses, a racquet center, four swimming pools, an ice rink and many community and recreation centers.

The Northern Colorado Regional Airport is jointly owned by the cities of Fort Collins and Loveland. With over 1,100 acres and roughly 300 aircraft, the airport serves the private and corporate aviation needs of the Northern Front Range, as well as charter flights and flights for area collegiate football teams.
