The Westfield Bank Building

100% Leased | Stable, Service-Based Tenant Mix

The asset is fully leased to a diverse mix of professional and medical tenants, including Westfield Bank, Brecksville Dermatology, Platelet Disorder Support Association, and Home Instead. Each provides essential services, fostering long-term tenancy and reliable cash flow.

Turnkey Condition | Minimal Capital Needs

Fully renovated in 2004, the property has been well maintained and requires no immediate capital improvements. Clean NNN leases further reduce ownership responsibilities and limit exposure to operating cost fluctuations.

Strong Demographics & Spending Power

Within a 3-mile radius, average household income exceeds $170,000. The 5-mile area is home to over 73,000 residents, offering both a robust customer base for tenants and long-term support for asset performance.

Anchored by Credit-Backed Regional Bank

Westfield Bank, the anchor tenant, occupies over 50% of the property and recently exercised an extension, reflecting their strong performance at this location. Their lease includes 2% annual escalations and a five-year renewal option, providing predictable income growth.

Prime Main Street Location in Affluent Suburb

Located in the heart of Brecksville's charming downtown district, the property benefits from excellent visibility and foot traffic on Brecksville Road (SR-21), just minutes from I-77. The property is surrounded by local dining, national retailers, and city amenities—positioning it as a cornerstone destination in the community.
