Investments Highlights

- Sticky Investment-Grade Tenancy - The current tenancy has been in place for an average of 18+ years. Further, Stanley Black & Decker, Inc. (60,000 SF; February 2030 LXP) - a publicly-traded investment-grade tenant (S&P: A) - represents approximately 81% of NOI generated from the Property and has been in the building since 2002.
- Prime Location - The Property benefits from its adjacency to the Cuyahoga County Airport, quick access to I-271 (3.4 miles) and I-90 (5.4 miles) thoroughfares and proximity to a strong skilled labor workforce in Cuyahoga County with average household incomes being $78,429 in a 2-mile radius.
- Mission-Critical Infrastructure - Warehouse is climate-controlled with Full HVAC, which is critical to Stanley Black & Decker's operations at the Property.
- NNN Lease Structure - Limited capital exposure with NNN lease structure and Roof Warranty in place through 2037.
- Market Reset, Rent Resilience - Vacancy moved to 3.9%, up from 2.8% at year end 2024, and year-to-date net absorption closed at negative 3.3 million square feet (msf) versus positive 1.1 msf at year end 2024. After a run of exceptional years, the numbers are telling us the market is catching its breath, absorbing what was built, and moving back toward more traditional fundamentals. The encouraging takeaway is that pricing has remained resilient, asking rents ended 2025 at $5.78 per square foot (psf), only modestly below the $5.91 psf record set at year end 2024, and up from $5.59 psf in the third quarter.

THE VIBRANT, TRANSFORMING CITY

Cleveland is a rich city filled with world class destinations.

Cleveland has become a world-class city. In the past decade, Downtown Cleveland has experienced astonishing growth by leveraging its unique position as:

- One of the Top 25 Best Places to Live
- One of the Top 10 Best Downtowns in the U.S.
- Home to 5.3 million square feet of office space
- A first choice living destination for the professional class

As a result of its rare mix of lifestyle amenities, downtown continues to attract outstanding new corporate residents and discerning professionals. For many young professionals and discretionary renters, the recent increase in supply has given extra incentive to rent in the downtown area. While supply has increased, demand has been astonishing, with new properties achieving record-breaking stabilization.

MARKET RESET, RENT RESILIENCE: Q4 2025 INDUSTRIAL RECAP

Fourth quarter 2025 finished with the market in a more traditional place than where we ended 2024. Vacancy moved to 3.9%, up from 2.8% at year end 2024, and year-to-date net absorption closed at negative 3.3 million square feet (msf) versus positive 1.1 msf at year end 2024. After a run of exceptional years, the numbers are telling us the market is catching its breath, absorbing what was built, and moving back toward more traditional fundamentals. The encouraging takeaway is that pricing has remained resilient, asking rents ended 2025 at $5.78 per square foot (psf), only modestly below the $5.91 psf record set at year end 2024, and up from $5.59 psf in the third quarter.

Leasing tells a similar story, the market stayed active, but it came off the historic pace we saw in 2024. Last year set a record with 12.6 msf leased across 443 transactions. In 2025, leasing volume fell to approximately 7.4 msf, about a 52% drop year-over-year and the lowest annual total since 2018, even though the number of deals was essentially flat at 436. Fourth quarter was a strong finish with 2.3 msf of new lease activity, led by Plastic Express taking 302,000 square feet (sf) at 1400 Lowell Street in Elyria. Overall, the mix continues to skew toward smaller users and steady, day-to-day needs, while larger requirements are taking longer to finalize as occupiers put more weight on fundamentals like power, labor, and tenant improvement costs.

New construction is where the reset is easiest to see. Fourth quarter 2025 completions were the lowest of the year at 562,181 sf, including 315,211 sf of speculative product. Even with a slower finish, 2025 still totaled roughly 5.3 msf of completions, a historic high and a big jump from 1.8 msf in 2024. The largest delivery was Fogg Building Method's 250,211-sf speculative project at 600 Seasons Road in Stow, another example of the momentum they are seeing in that corridor. Looking ahead, the pipeline has cooled, with about 950k sf under construction heading into 2026, though we are tracking another 1.1 msf in planned projects. With occupancy in the newer bulk distribution segment above 95%, several submarkets, including the Southwest, Lake County, Medina County, and Stark County, could support additional well-located speculative construction.

In 2025, user sales held firm, totaling 6.8 msf. Fourth quarter activity came in at 1.4 msf, consistent with the year's quarterly rhythm. Looking into 2026, the outlook remains constructive, manufacturing demand continues to be the backbone of the region, the older, less functional buildings will feel the most pressure, and disciplined development should keep the market from getting ahead of itself. We also expect more sale opportunities on both the user and investment sides, and lower interest rates should improve financing conditions and support more deal volume.
