The Opportunity

This property is perfectly suited for two types of buyers:

- Real Estate Investors

Acquire a centrally located, income-producing asset in Uptown. With multiple tenants in place, this commercial condominium offers stable revenue and strong long-term potential in a growing urban core.

- Retail or Commercial Owner-Occupiers

Position your business in a 1,281 sq. ft. vacant ground-floor unit and benefit from additional income from three fully leased suites. Build equity, reduce operating costs, and enjoy the prestige of owning a landmark commercial space.

Property Highlights

This 4,884 sq. ft. two-level commercial condominium is located in the iconic heritage building, The Fairweather. It includes ground and second floors with flexible multi-tenant layouts suitable for professional, retail, or service-based businesses. The building features a fully functional elevator for accessibility and has received significant upgrades in recent years.

- PLUMBING: Copper and PVC lines, along with some new PEX-style plumbing.
- HEATING: The property features a natural gas furnace and baseboard hot water heaters.
- ELECTRICAL: Electrical Breaker panels. Understood to have adequate service for current uses.
- SPRINKLERS: Wet system roughed in but not connected.

Location Map

The immediate neighbourhood includes commercial storefronts, office properties, and apartments. Over the past decade, private developers have introduced higher-quality apartments in repurposed commercial buildings. Notable nearby businesses include Italian by Night, the Feel Good Store, and Trinity Gallery.

Germain Street is considered one of Uptown Saint John's most charming areas. It is a short walk to the waterfront and features sidewalks. Nearby, a tree-lined street showcases well-maintained heritage homes. Paid on-street parking is available on Germain Street, and city transit stops are located on King Street.
