PROPERTY HIGHLIGHTS

Hanover Positioned for Explosive Tech Growth.

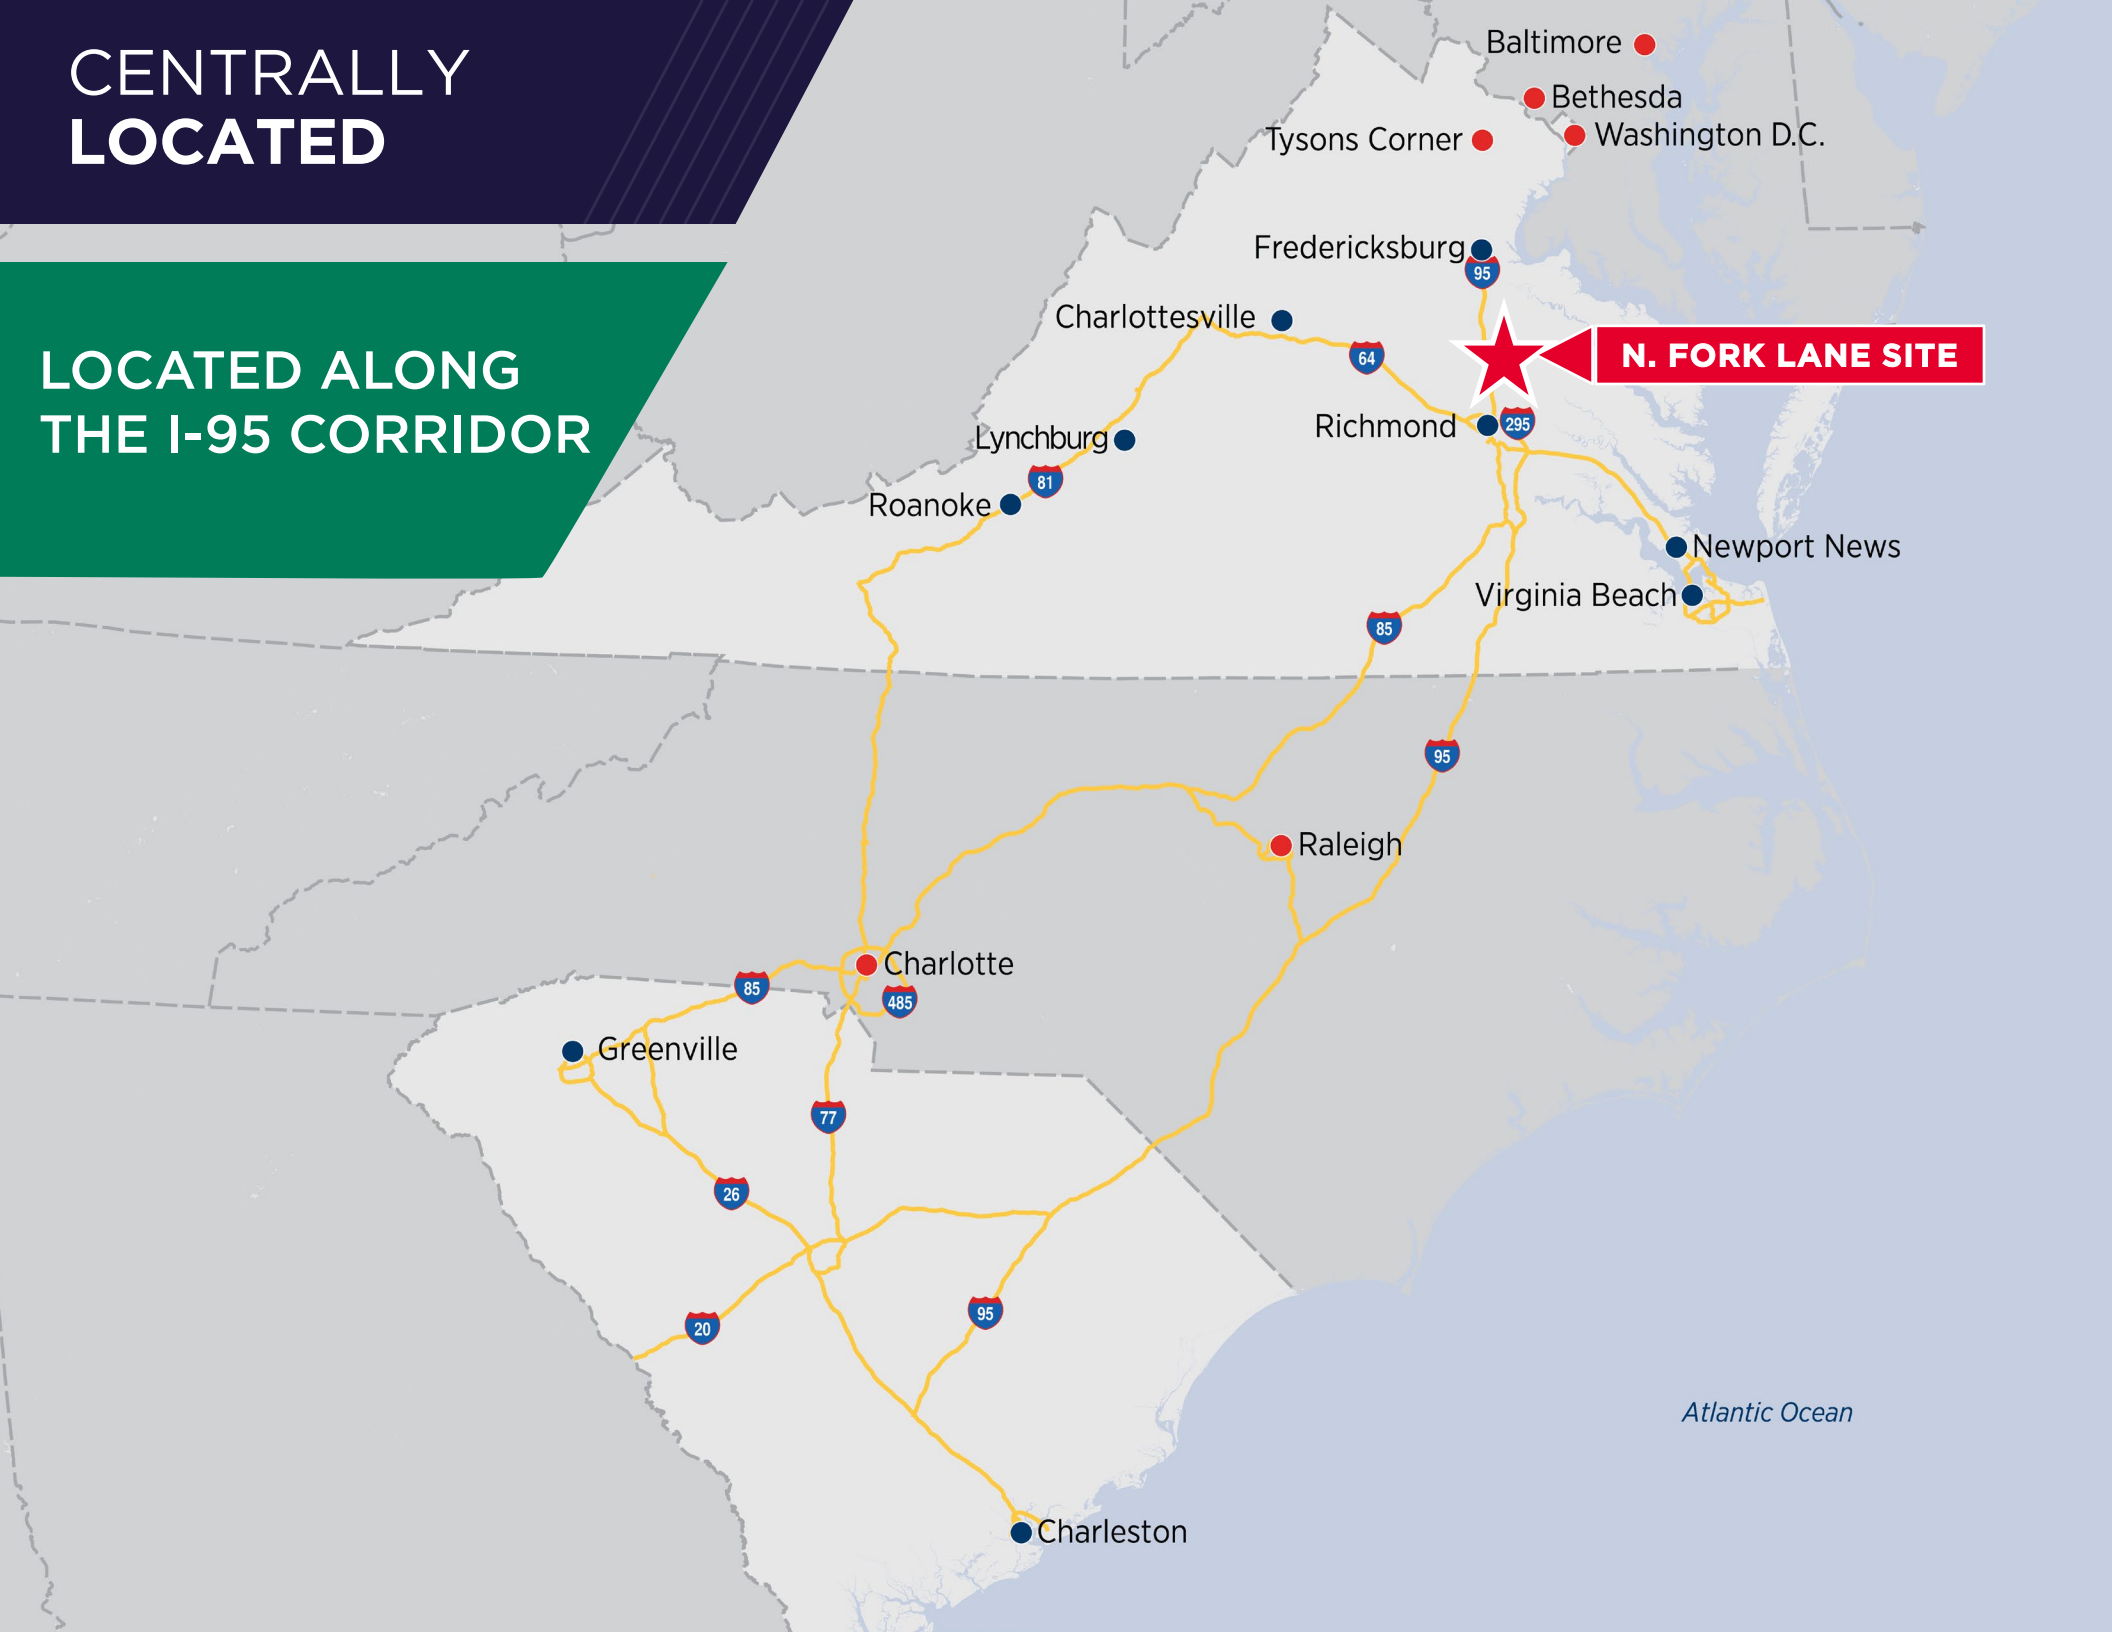

Hanover County is set to become a major player in the tech infrastructure space with the approval of Tract's 1,200-acre Hanover Technology Park. Positioned just off I-95 and minutes from Richmond, the project will deliver up to 2.4 GW of power capacity across a multi-campus data center development. With site energization targeted for 2028, the park is expected to generate approximately $1.78 billion in tax revenue, create hundreds of high-paying jobs, and attract a new wave of technology-driven investment to the region—further strengthening Virginia's position as the global leader in data center development.
