Location Overview

The Subject Property is located along River Road West in Wasaga Beach, one of Ontario’s fastest-growing waterfront communities and a highly desirable recreational and year-round residential destination. Positioned within the Town of Wasaga Beach, the Property benefits from a peaceful setting while remaining within close proximity to the area’s primary commercial and tourism corridors. The surrounding area is characterized by a mix of established residential neighbourhoods, seasonal accommodations, recreational amenities, and natural open spaces, with convenient access to Mosley Street, Main Street, and County Road 92, providing efficient connections throughout Wasaga Beach, Collingwood, and the southern Georgian Bay region.

The Property is well connected by regional transportation infrastructure, with Simcoe County LINX transit providing service between Wasaga Beach and neighbouring communities, including Collingwood and Barrie, where residents can access expanded regional transit services and GO Transit connections. County Road 92 and nearby Highway 26 offer convenient east-west access along Georgian Bay, while Highway 400 is approximately 30 minutes to the southeast, providing direct connectivity to Barrie and the Greater Toronto Area.

The location offers an excellent range of amenities, with numerous retail centres, restaurants, cafés, grocery stores, pharmacies, financial institutions, and everyday services located throughout Wasaga Beach’s commercial core and along nearby Mosley Street. The Property also benefits from proximity to major recreational attractions, including Wasaga Beach Provincial Park, the world’s longest freshwater beach, golf courses, marinas, and year-round outdoor recreation. The surrounding community is supported by public and catholic schools, healthcare services, and a growing population driven by both permanent residents and seasonal visitors, reinforcing Wasaga Beach’s reputation as one of Ontario’s premier lifestyle and recreational destinations.

Area Amenities

- WASAGA BEACH PROVINCIAL PARK: Wasaga Beach Provincial Park is home to the world’s longest freshwater beach, stretching over 14 kilometres along the shores of Georgian Bay. As one of Ontario’s premier recreational destinations, the park attracts millions of visitors annually and offers sandy beaches, hiking trails, picnic areas, and year-round outdoor activities, making it a defining amenity for the surrounding community.
- STONEBRIDGE TOWN CENTRE: Stonebridge Town Centre is Wasaga Beach’s primary retail destination, offering a wide range of national retailers, grocery stores, restaurants, financial institutions, and everyday services. Anchored by major tenants including Walmart and Canadian Tire, the centre serves as the community’s principal shopping hub and provides convenient access to daily necessities for both permanent residents and seasonal visitors.
- WASAGA BEACH AREA 1: Area 1 serves as the town’s primary beachfront destination, featuring the iconic beachfront, boardwalk, restaurants, cafés, shops, and seasonal events. The area functions as the social and tourism heart of Wasaga Beach, drawing both local residents and visitors throughout the year while supporting a vibrant waterfront atmosphere.
